

5-9-1987

Henri Temianka Correspondence; (kamen)

Martin Kamen

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/temianka_correspondence

Recommended Citation

Kamen, Martin, "Henri Temianka Correspondence; (kamen)" (1987). Henri Temianka Correspondence. 2652.
https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/temianka_correspondence/2652

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the Henri Temianka Archives at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Henri Temianka Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.

Henri Temianka Correspondence; (kamen)

Description

This collection contains material pertaining to the life, career, and activities of Henri Temianka, violin virtuoso, conductor, music teacher, and author. Materials include correspondence, concert programs and flyers, music scores, photographs, and books.

Keywords

Henri Temianka, Martin Kamen, May 9, 1987, culture, virtuosity in musical performance, violinist, chamber music, camaraderie, Emmy Temianka, wife, husband, health and sickness, hospital, family, medical personnel

Martin D. Kamen

May 9-1987

1390 Plaza Pacifica
Santa Barbara, CA 93108
Tel: (805) 969-5102

Dear Friends -

The moment we have been dreading is almost upon us. Our last weekend the thing broke through and Virginia has been on a downward course ever since. She is now in Cottage Hospital holding on to life by the barest thread with the help of oxygen. Pain is controlled by morphine.

We have held out hope right along ever since we knew she was facing a killer in December, but now there seems to be no further basis. Her sister and brother-in-law are here helping me and there is nothing anyone else can do. Virginia and I will now be in more debt to anyone than you two for your attention and concern in these terrible times.

I will be in touch later. I just haven't the heart to write more.

Yours

Martin K

[[Nick Dante 1/11/18]]

[[Henri Temianka Correspondence
Martin Kamen
Letter #30]]

[[Page 1 – Letter]]

May 9 -1987

[[Letterhead: Martin D. Kamen

1390 Plaza Pacifica
Santa Barbara, CA 93108
Tel: (805) 969-5102]]

Dear Friends –

The moment we have been dreading is almost upon us. Over last weekend the thing broke through and Virginia has been on a downward course ever since. She is now in Cortage Hospital holding on to life by the barest thread with the help of oxygen. Pain is controlled by morphine.

We have held out hope right along ever since we knew she was facing a piller in December, but now there seems to be no further basis. Her sister and brother-in-law are here helping me and there is nothing any one else can do. Virginia and I will never be in more debt to any one than you two for your contention and concern in these terrible times.

I will be in touch later. I just haven't the heart to write more.

Yours

Martin K